THE NEGRO VOTE.-The democratic gubernatorial campaign opened in Rictmond last night with a large and enthusiastic meeting in the Arademy of Music. Nearly all the members of the constitutional convention were present. Chairman Ellyson, of the State Democratic Committee, presided and first introduced John Goode, President of the constitutional convention. The feature of the meeting was a bold declaration that the new constitution to be adopted while eliminating the negro vote, will not disfranchise a white man. The speakers were State Chairman Ellyson, President John Goode, of the convention, and Mr. Montague, the nominee for governor. They declare the faith of the party is pledged to eliminate the negro vote from politics of Virginia.
